declaration. A true and correct copy of the attached form of non-disclosure agreement is attached as Exhibit 2 to this declaration.

5. Although the non-disclosure agreement was not executed, at around 4:00 p.m. Mr. Cohn and I met with Ms. Sullivan and Mr. Donziger at Elliott's offices in New York City.

6. During that meeting, after informing us of his successful, ongoing efforts to raise millions of dollars from third-party investors to fund his efforts to enforce the judgment he had obtained against Chevron in Ecuador, Mr. Donziger inquired whether Elliott would provide him with funds for that purpose in exchange for an interest in proceeds that may result from enforcement of the Ecuadorian judgment. During the meeting, Mr. Cohn, who left the meeting after a short time, and I remained entirely non-committal on the subject. My notes from the meeting are attached as Exhibit 3 to this declaration.

7. The purpose of the November 6 meeting was confirmed in follow-up emails Mr. Cohn and I received from Ms. Sullivan and Mr. Donziger, in which they attempted to pursue the deal they had pitched at the November 6 meeting. Most notably:

- On November 6, Ms. Sullivan emailed me (copying Messrs. Donziger and Cohn) in pertinent part:

It was a pleasure to meet with you to introduce you to the Chevron case and share the opportunity for you to be a key partner in enforcing and collecting the historical $9.5B/now $12B environmental judgment.

- On November 7, Mr. Donziger emailed me and Ms. Sullivan (copying Mr. Cohn) in pertinent part:

It was nice to meet and talk with someone who obviously gets the situation with the Chevron matter.

I meant to tell you that I have a packet of materials that I generally send out to those doing due diligence on the opportunity. Let me know if you want it and if so, I will forward.

- On January 19, 2018, Ms. Sullivan emailed Mr. Cohn and me (copying Mr. Donziger) in pertinent part:

We would like to bring you up to date on recent developments with the Ecuador case and discuss our vision for a strategic capital partnership. Are you available Tuesday 1/23 or 1/24 to meet at your office or for a breakfast or lunch meeting?

A true and correct copy of an email chain containing all the emails referenced in this paragraph is attached as Exhibit 4 to this declaration.

8. By reply email on January 19, 2018, I informed Ms. Sullivan (copying Messrs. Donziger and Cohn) in pertinent part that Elliott "does not intend to move forward on the Ecuador matter." My reply email is also contained in Exhibit 4 to this declaration. Since then, neither Mr. Donziger nor his associates have contacted me or, to the best of my knowledge and information, anyone else at Elliott.

Executed on this 5th day of March 2018 at New York, New York.

Jesse and Lee,
Look forward to meeting with you at 4. Steven Donziger, the architect of successfully winning the judgement, was able to change his travel plans and join me.
I have attached an NDA. Please execute prior to the meeting so he can speak freely.
With gratitude,
Katie

NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

THIS NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT, is made and entered into as of the ___ day of October, 2017 by _____, a _____-based Corporation with its principal office address at _____ (“the counterparty”), and the Frente de Defensa de la Amazonia (“FDA”), as represented by Steven R. Donziger, Esq., with address at 245 West 104th Street, #7D, New York, New York.

WHEREAS, the above-named parties wish to engage in discussions concerning a possible financing of a judgment collection action in the Aguinda v. ChevronTexaco case where the FDA is the beneficiary; and

WHEREAS, in connection with the aforementioned discussions, the FDA shall disclose Confidential Information to the counterparty.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants and premises set forth below, and as a condition of the FDA disclosing Confidential Information, whether verbally, in writing, documentary or any other format, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. Definition of “Confidential Information”. For the purposes of this Agreement, “Confidential Information” includes, without limitation: the existence of the discussions between the parties; the financial statements and financial information of the FDA; and any information that the FDA designates as “confidential” or “proprietary. The term “Confidential Information” does not include: (i) information which at the time of disclosure is in the public domain or is already possessed by the counterparty, free of any confidentiality obligation, as demonstrated by written or other tangible evidence; (ii) information which after disclosure becomes part of the public domain through no fault of the counterparty; and (iii) information disclosed to the counterparty by a third party, free of any confidentiality obligation, which third party has not acquired the information in an unlawful or questionable manner. If the counterparty is required to make a disclosure because one is required by a governmental body or a court of competent jurisdiction, the counterparty must first notify the FDA representative in writing order to give the FDA an opportunity to seek a protective order or otherwise seek to prevent such disclosure.

2. Nondisclosure of Confidential Information. The FDA disclosure of the Confidential Information is being made for the sole purpose of discussions concerning a possible financing engagement regarding any judgment collection actions from the aforementioned Aguinda matter. Neither the counterparty nor its employees, officers, affiliates, directors or agents will, without prior written consent of the FDA, disclose or distribute the Confidential Information or cause the Confidential Information to be disclosed or distributed to any third party other than representatives of the counterparty to whom such disclosure is necessary for the purpose of evaluating the Possible Engagement and who represent that they personally agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement. The counterparty agrees to accept the FDA’s Confidential Information for the sole purpose of evaluation in connection with counterparty’s business discussions with the FDA, and will not use any Confidential Information disclosed to them by the FDA for their own or any third party’s benefit without the prior written approval of the FDA. Counterparty agrees to use reasonable care, but in no event less than the same degree of care that they use to protect their own confidential and proprietary information of similar importance, to prevent the unauthorized use, disclosure, publication or dissemination of Confidential Information they receive directly or indirectly from the FDA. The FDA shall, in its sole discretion, determine what Confidential Information shall be disclosed to the counterparty and any disclosure shall be subject to the terms and limitations set forth herein.

3. Return of Confidential Information. All Confidential Information shall remain the property of the FDA. Copies of all documents, summaries and other tangible Confidential Information of the FDA, regardless of who produced same, shall be returned to the FDA or destroyed at its option upon the earlier of an FDA request or termination of the discussions between the parties hereto. That portion of the Confidential Information consisting of oral Confidential Information will be held by the counterparty and kept subject to the terms of this Agreement.

4. Acknowledgement. The counterparty acknowledges: (a) that the Confidential Information is proprietary to and commercially and competitively valuable to the FDA; (b) that the unauthorized use or disclosure of the Confidential Information could cause irreparable harm to the FDA; (c) that the FDA has taken and is taking reasonable measures to protect its legitimate interests in the Confidential Information, including, but not limited to, affirmative actions to safeguard the confidentiality of such Confidential Information; and (d) that, by this Agreement, the FDA is taking reasonable steps to protect its legitimate interests in the Confidential Information.

5. Remedies. The rights and obligations of the parties under this Agreement may be enforced by a decree of specific performance issued by a court of competent jurisdiction without the FDA having to post a bond or other security. Such remedy shall not prohibit the FDA from pursuing any other remedy, whether in law or equity, available for a breach or threatened breach of this Agreement.

6. Duty to Notify. Whenever the counterparty knows or has reason to believe that this Agreement has been violated or that there has been an improper use or disclosure of the Confidential Information or any part thereof, the counterparty shall notify the FDA in writing, within five (5) business days, setting forth in detail such known or suspected violation and/or improper use or disclosure.

7. Period. The obligations of the counterparty and FDA under this Agreement shall remain in effect for a period of 24 months from the date hereof.

8. Governing Law. The formation, validity, construction and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of New York, excluding any rule or principle of the conflict of laws that might otherwise refer the interpretation or construction of this Agreement to the law of any other jurisdiction.

9. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire and only agreement among the parties hereto in respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes and cancels any prior agreement, oral or written, in respect thereto. No amendment or change hereof or addition hereto shall be effective or binding upon any of the parties hereto unless in writing and executed by the parties hereto. This Agreement shall not be assignable by any party hereto, and no party hereto may delegate its duties hereunder without the prior written consent of the other parties.

10. Counterparts; Facsimile and Electronic Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Facsimile and electronic signatures shall be deemed originals.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed in duplicate as of the date first above written by their duly authorized representatives.
