RSVP Required

Contributions or gifts to Biden Victory Fund are not tax deductible.

Biden Victory Fund accepts contributions of up to $721,300 from a person and $345,000 from a multicandidate committee ("PAC"). The first $2,800/$5,000 from a person/PAC will be allocated to Biden for President. The next $35,500/$15,000 from a person/PAC will be allocated to the DNC. The next $150,000/$75,000 from a person/PAC will be split equally among the Democratic state parties from: AZ, CO, FL, GA, MI, MN, NC, NE, NH, NV, OH, PA, TX, VA, and WI. The next $110,000/$55,000 from a person/PAC will be split equally among the Democratic state parties from: AL, DE, KS, LA, MA, MD, MS, NJ, NY, VT, and WV. The next $210,000/$105,000 from a person/PAC will be split equally among the Democratic state parties from: AK, AR, CT, DC, HI, ID, IN, KY, ME, MO, MT, ND, NM, OK, OR, RI, SC, TN, UT, WA, and WY. Any additional funds will be allocated to the DNC.

A contributor may designate his or her contribution for a particular participant. The allocation formula above may change if following it would result in an excessive contribution. Contributions will be used in connection with federal elections, may be spent on any activity as each committee determines in its sole discretion, and will not be earmarked for any particular candidate. Federal law requires us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation, and name of employer of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 per election cycle. Biden Victory Fund does not accept contributions from corporations or their PACs, unions, federal contractors, national banks, those registered as federal lobbyists or under FARA, SEC-named executives of fossil fuel companies, or foreign nationals.

Paid for by Biden Victory Fund, a joint fundraising committee authorized by Biden for President, the Democratic National Committee and the State Democratic Parties in these states: AK, AL, AR, AZ, CO, CT, DC, DE, FL, GA, HI, ID, IN, KS, KY, LA, MA, MD, ME, MI, MN, MO, MS, MT, NC, ND, NE, NH, NJ, NM, NV, NY, OH, OK, OR, PA, RI, SC, TN, TX, UT, VA, VT, WA, WI, WV, and WY.

A VIRTUAL CONVERSATION ON U.S. GLOBAL BUSINESS AND INTERNATIONAL LAW

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 1, 5:00 PM (ET)

The assault on international law and the transnational legal system over the past four years has been obvious; the United States has terminated and withdrawn from a multitude of treaties, and in the process has weakened its position as a global leader. These actions have not only affected our leadership on issues like climate change and human rights, but they have also directly and adversely affected U.S. businesses investing and operating abroad, too. Join a bipartisan group of former government officials and foreign policy experts to discuss how a Biden Administration would seek to reverse that trend, protect American business interests abroad, and recover our role as a leader in the advancement of the global rule of law.

Moderator

Charles T. Kotuby Jr.
Partner, Global Disputes, JONES DAY (Washington D.C.)

Speakers:

Harold Hongju Koh, Sterling Professor of International Law at Yale Law School, U.S. State Department Legal Advisor, 2009-2013.

John B. Bellinger III, Partner, Arnold & Porter (Washington D.C.); U.S. State Department Legal Advisor, 2005-2009.

David Carden, the United States' First Resident Ambassador to the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN), 2011-2013.
